Gajapayana heralds start of a grand Dasara 2022

Major event at Veeranahosahalli after a two-year gap; half-a-kilometre march with folk troupes

Mysuru, Aug. 7 (MTY&BCT)- Signalling the official countdown to a grand Mysuru Dasara-2022, nine caparisoned elephants led by Abhimanyu — the Golden Howdah-carrying elephant — embarked on Gajapayana, their journey from different elephant camps to Mysore Palace this morning. The event was held on a grand scale after two years of the COVID pandemic and even the State Government has decided to celebrate the Dasara Nada Habba on a grand scale. In 2020 and 2021, celebrations were subdued.

The nine Dasara elephants, which were a part of the first batch are 57-year-old Abhimanyu, 22-year-old Bheema, 39-year-old Gopalaswamy and 39-year-old Mahendra from Mathigodu Elephant Camp, 63-year-old Arjuna from Balle Elephant Camp, 44-year-old Dhananjaya and 45-year-old Kaveri from Dubare Elephant Camp, 49-year-old Chaitra and 21-year-old Lakshmi from Rampura Elephant Camp.

The journey began at Veeranahosahalli Gate on the fringes of Nagarahole National Park in Hunsur taluk where the elephants were brought from forest camps. Though it rained heavily, it did not dampen the spirits and a symbolic half-a-kilometre walk was performed to the programme venue.

Honour for Arjuna

Today's march was led by Arjuna, the earlier Howdah Elephant and he has been designated as a 'Nishane Aane' (the tusker that will move first in the Vijayadashami procession) and it is an honour considering his experience and services. He will be the 'Nishane Aane' for a couple of more years.

EDITOR'S BOTTOMLINE

The domination of the internet by Big Tech is a very recent phenomenon — about 10-12 years old. But the era of unfettered Big-Tech domination of the internet is ending and the internet is at an inflection point today. New and newer start-ups are important players that are directing innovation and disruption of the current and future internet.

Our approach to digital sovereignty is primarily about ensuring the internet is Open, Safe & Trusted and Accountable (OSTA) for our digital nagriks and to ensure digital nagriks have their fundamental rights protected in the digital space. The Narendra Modi government is building the framework piece by piece to ensure that our policy goals and deliverables to our citizens indeed materialise. Internet and cyber space are boundary-less and the jurisprudence around it will continue to evolve. However, it's incorrect to believe that no laws of a country apply. We are working hard to dispel that delusion by new rules and laws.

India is world's oldest and largest Democracy. India is also the world's leading digital Democracy and has emerged as one of the world's pre-eminent nation in the use of technology to improve people's lives and opportunities. In many ways we are a beacon to the world's democracies, and with our last seven years of successes, we will also play an important role working with other democracies in shaping the future of the internet.

India's model will never ever be the walled-off big-state model of China or even Russia. Our PM's vision is to ensure our internet reflects our democratic and open values and hence the boundary conditions of OSTA will always protect our citizens and start-ups rights online.

Poor quality of road repair results in potholes again

Sir,

Consequent upon publishing of my letter in this column twice some months ago, the authorities came up with tarring of a portion of the road (3rd A Cross, in front of Sukrutha PU College) in Dattagalli which was damaged because of movement of trucks loaded heavily with M-sand, bricks and stones that are dumped, stored and sold on the vacant land adjacent to the Dattagalli Ring Road and 3rd A Cross.

The old tarring was so thin like painting without proper metalling. And with rains returning, the road has turned back to its original state of potholes.

I request the authorities and the area Corporator to get the entire road made afresh with proper metalling and sufficient quantity of tar.

From the pages of history

Gajapayana is now a symbolic event which was once an elaborate affair where the elephants, mahouts, kavadis and families used to travel over 80 to 100 kilometres from the forests to Mysuru by foot. But in the present times, the elephants and the entourage symbolically march a short distance after which they are transported by trucks.

The tradition of Gajapayana began during the reign of Sri Jayachamaraja Wadiyar when the members of the Mysore royal family including the King and his courtiers offered pujas to the tuskers at Maasthi Gudi or Maasthamma Temple near Antharasanthe in H.D. Kote taluk.

All along the route, band sets and traditional tribal instruments were played to signify the beginning of the festivities and people used to offer jaggery, fruits and sweets to elephants. The Gajapayana was discontinued after the Privy Purse was abolished when the Kings and Queens became titular heads.

The vanishing tradition was revived in 2001 when S.M. Krishna was the Chief Minister and A.H. Vishwanath, a Mysurean himself, was the Mysuru District Minister from Veeranahosahalli Gate. Since then, Gajapayana has been diligently observed.

Azadi Ka Amrit Mahotsav...

Recalling selfless sacrifice of known, unknown heroes

By Dr. Manik A.V. Bengeri

We celebrate 2022 in a special way as it is the 75th year of Independence. At this juncture, it is necessary to remember our people's struggle for freedom — many known and unknown heroes have sacrificed their lives. Here is a glance at our freedom struggle from 1857 to 1947.

The events are in chronological order for easy understanding.

Mangal Pandey started the first revolution against the British in Meerut in 1857 but he was caught and hanged to death. Inspired by this, Kunwar Singh from Bihar, Bakht Khan from Delhi, Nana Saheb and Tatya Tope (Tantiya Tope) from Kanpur and Rani Lakshmibai from Jhansi as well as the Sikh regiment of Punjab joined the struggle unitedly.

The Bengal region could not remain silent in this movement and in 1862, it joined hands to oppose blue agriculture; hence it was called as Blue Revolution of Bengal. Swami Dayananda Saraswati started creating awareness through 'Arya Samaj' in 1875.

In Kolkata, Surendranath Banerjee founded the 'Indian National Association' in 1876. In the same year, 'Vande Mataram', full of patriotism was penned by Bankim Chandra Chatterjee in Sanskrit. Only this song has the capacity to be placed equivalent to our National Anthem.

Madras did not remain untouched by all these activities. Dr. Annie Besant founded the Theosophical Society of India in 1882 which helped people unify action through intellectuals. In 1885, the Indian National Congress (INC) was founded by A.O. Hume.

In 1893, Swami Vivekananda reached Chicago, America and delivered his world famous speech about India and its philosophy. He gave the message of awakening — "Arise awake and stop not until the goal is reached."

Lal Bal Pal

In 1905, Bengal was divided as per the British policy of 'Divide & Rule' and the Muslim-dominated area of Bengal was separated and East Bengal was created.

In 1906, the Congress session was held in Calcutta where Lal Bal Pal joined hands to strengthen the freedom movement — Lala Lajpat Rai from Punjab, Bal Gangadhar Tilak from Maharashtra, and Bipin Chandra Pal from Bengal. They were at the forefront and had a unified thought as far as independence strategies were concerned and infused new strength.

In 1908, in Calcutta, Khudiram Bose and Prafulla Chandra Chaki prepared a bomb and threw it on the then Magistrate Douglas Kingsford, who was killed. In 1909, the British announced a major reform to bring change to the Indian administration, which was called Morley-Minto Reform.

In 1911, the magnanimous Delhi Durbar was organised in honour of King George V. The division of Bengal was cancelled. Till this time, the functioning of East India Company and the British Government was being done from Calcutta, but from 1911 it was shifted to Delhi and a big function was arranged.

Gauhar Jaan and Mysore

Nobel Prize recipient Rabindranath Tagore penned a poem in praise of King George V — Jana-gana-mana adhinayaka — which was sung by the topmost singer of that time. Gauhar Jaan of Calcutta sang it in the Delhi Durbar and received big honour. From 1911, Delhi became the British capital.

Gauhar Jaan was a Hindustani classical singer and it is quite interesting to know that she was invited to perform at the Mysore Palace. The Maharaja was the patron of all performing arts and as such he offered Gauhar Jaan a permanent place in Mysore. She was staying in Mysore near today's Chamundi Vihar Stadium in a spacious bungalow and breathed her last in K.R. Hospital in 1930.

The year 1919 was the year of Montagu-Chelmsford Reforms and the Rowlatt Act were passed. This is the year when the Jallianwala Bagh massacre took place where thousands of people were brutally killed under the orders of General Dyer.

Non-Cooperation

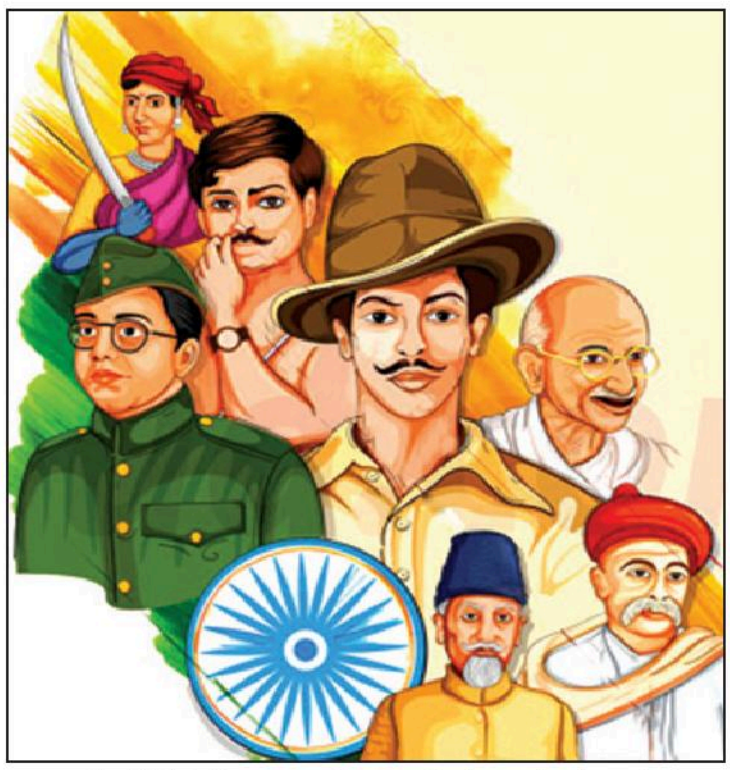
Notably, it was in 1920 that Mahatma Gandhi gave the 'Non-Cooperation' weapon and started a big movement against the British. In 1927, the Simon Commission report to propose changes in the Indian rule was strongly opposed. Simon Commission report was implemented in 1928.

While people started protesting, they were punished mercilessly. In this protest, Lala Lajpat Rai was badly hit and died. In 1930 Gandhiji met Bhagat Singh who was just 18 years old and when Bhagat Singh said 'Sat Sri Akaal' to him, Gandhiji advised him to say 'Vande Mataram'. This motivated Bhagat Singh.

In 1930, Rajguru was caught and in 1931, patriots Rajguru, Bhagat Singh and Sukhdev were hanged to death. In 1940, Muslim League Session was conducted and they proposed total freedom.

Indian National Army

The year 1941 was a crucial and equally important year when Subhas Chandra Bose organised Indian National Army. He firmly believed in the policy of 'tit for tat' to the British and he also thought that only by our mental and physical strength we can remove the British Government.



For this, he wanted to unite people so that he could train them in his Army. His popular slogan was 'Give me blood, and I shall give you freedom.' Thousands of people joined him while others donated money and women voluntarily offered jewellery. Such was his forceful voice.

The Quit India Movement began in 1942 and the country came under one banner. All united to protest and oppose the British strongly. In the coming year, the movement became strong. As a result in 1946, the British Cabinet Mission came to India to solve the problem. At this time, the interim government rule was implemented.

The total and solid effect of all the sacrifices by the brave patriots and freedom fighters was so powerful that a day soon came when the British had to agree to freedom and granted it on Aug. 15, 1947. But before that India was partitioned as per the demand placed by the Muslim League.

The long years of slavery ended but we have to keep alive in our hearts the sacred memory of those great martyrs who made tremendous sacrifices for the attainment of freedom. The real celebration this I-Day is to worship those patriots who shed their blood for achieving freedom for us.

WORD OF THE DAY

Menagerie

Pronunciation: muh-NAJ-uh-ree.
Meaning: Menagerie is used to refer to a collection of animals kept especially to be shown to the public, as well as a place where such animals are kept. It can also refer more broadly to any varied mixture.
Origin: Back in the days of Middle French, ménagerie meant "the management of a household or farm" or "a place where animals are tended." When English speakers adopted menagerie in the 1600s, they applied it specifically to places where wild and often also foreign animals were kept and trained for exhibition, as well as to the animals so kept. This second meaning was eventually generalised to refer to any varied mixture, especially one that includes things that are strange or foreign to one's experience.
Example: "Beatrix Potter created a delightful Peter Rabbit in her 1902 book publication, then went on to write about and draw a whole menagerie of related animal friends." — Brenda Yenke

THE ODD WORD

Macadamize

To cover a road with small broken stones.

PHRASE OF THE DAY

Method to my madness

Meaning: This funny phrase 'Method to my madness' means that there is often a reason behind someone's mysterious behaviour.
Origin: This phrase is based on a line from Shakespeare 's Hamlet, written in the year 1602.
Example: "At the start of his presentation, it seemed that he's out of his mind, but when he finished, we saw that there's method in his madness."

QUOTE BOX

There is always some madness in love. But there is also always some reason in madness. —Friedrich Nietzsche
